

Teen Agreement*

As the piano year begins...

- I will attempt to create a manageable weekly practice schedule that works with my busy life as a high school student.
- I understand that the first practice contest involves getting to the piano to practice for 30 consecutive days. I realize that this challenge must be completed before I can move on to other practice contests.

Every week I will:

- Complete the Student Log on the front of my piano folder, including whether or not I practiced piano.
- Complete the current week's lesson sheet inside the folder, including pieces I practiced, music I'd like to play, and music I listened to that week.
- Doublecheck that I have all needed lesson materials in my piano bag.

On practice days I will:

- Play each piece multiple times until it gets better (the definition of "practice").

On practice days I won't:

- Play my assigned pieces one time through as quickly as possible and call that practice.

Recital Participation:

I am aware that a piano recital has been scheduled for spring.

I WILL \ WILL NOT (circle one) be participating.
